The Client acknowledges that The Gema Group Catering have exclusive rights to supply all goods and services reasonably necessary to meet the needs of clients on the event day ('the Event Licensees'). The Hospitality Rights Owner shall supply the Client with the Service (through the Event Licensees) ordered by the Client. The client indemnifies the ACT Government and the Hospitality Manager from all claims to the extent contributed to, or caused by, the Client's negligent, unlawful or willfully wrong acts or omissions. The Client's liability to indemnify shall be reduced proportionally to the extent that any negligent, unlawful or willfully wrong act or omission of the ACT Government or the Hospitality Manager contributed to such a claim.

The Client remains liable for the actions of the Client and its guests who use the facility or Services booked by the Client. The Client agrees to indemnify and keep indemnified the ACT Government and the Hospitality Manager against any actions, claims, suits and demands brought maintained or made against the ACT Government or the Hospitality Manager by any person to the extent contributed to, or caused by, the Client's (or its guests) negligent, unlawful or willfully wrong acts or omissions.

Beverage allocation: Unused beverage allocation is non-refundable and cannot be removed from the venue.

Consistent with the responsible sale/service of alcohol, Event Licensees will (where necessary and appropriate) refuse alcohol service to any patron who they believe to be intoxicated.

Dress Code: clients attending functions in the Bradman Room will be required to comply with the following dress standards (unless otherwise stated). Males—jacket/tie; Females—suit/day wear.

The ACT Government and Hospitality Manager do not accept responsibility for the cancellation of, or changes to the event, or for the acts, omissions, errors or negligence of those over whom they have no direct control; or security for the safety of their personal and corporate belongings of clients and their guests. If the event is cancelled prior to match day 90 per cent of all monies paid will be refunded to the client by the Hospitality Rights Owner (an administration fee of ten per cent applies). If the gates have been opened on match day all hospitality will proceed and no refund will be paid.

The ACT Government and Hospitality Manager reserve the right to allocate sites/seats as appropriate. Clients must abide by any other reasonable terms, conditions or requirements imposed by the Hospitality Rights Owner from time to time.
